AUDITORIUM.

A real treat to the patrons of the Additorium is promised by Connelly, & Schwartz for the first three days of this week, beginning with matinee today at 2 p. m. This will be the first Eroadway show playing the Auditorium at popular prices. The management is trying to secure the rest of the Exchange Telegraph Company, quoting Berlin advices sent from there at three o'clock this morning. The crown prince's palace was selzed by the revolutionists. The people should "Long live the republic" and sang the "Marseillaise."

When revolutionary soldiers attempted to enter a building in which they susposed a number of officers were concealed, shots were fired in the windings. Many persons were killed and wounded before the officers surrendered. The Red forces are in control where he gots a lesson in "golf" is alone worth the price of admission. BREED THEATRE.

BREED THEATRE.

Today, Tuesday and Wednesday the Breed will present William Fox's greatest film spectacle, The Prussian Cur. This gigantic film drama was screened with two objects in view. One was to produce a mighty panoram of the war, the other was to reveal the menace of the German spy system and install in every citizen a deeper love for his country. How well this was accomplished will be proved in the Breed theatre today, Tuesday and Wednesday, when this thrilling photoplay will be run. The Prussian Cur goes back for half a century. It shows that, while America was cultivating peace Germany was welding the chains with which she intended to hind the world to the Hun war chariot. Many of the great scenes in this play have never been surpassed for dramatic impressiveness. Among the characters are figures who rank with if said day prove stormy, sale next characters are figures who rank with the greatest of all time—President Wilson, General Pershing, General Forh, Emperor Wilhelm, Von Tirpitz, Von Hindenberg, Bismarck, Von Bernstorf, Abraham Lincoln, Ambassador Gerard, besides many other prominent officials and thousands of soldiers, sallors and civilians. Stirring events in Washington. sallors and civilians. Stirring events in Washington, strikes and mob violence. American and German military movements, revolting German atrocities, mobbing and execution of a spy—scene after scene is built into a massive videological complex.

tations keyed with suspense, is laid in the Klondike mountains of Alaska during the days of the gold rush. Miss Williams plays the part of Dorothy Harlan, a former vaudeville favor-ite, who is daring the wilds of the north to join her lover, who is striving to make the profession of attorney wag, where laws are made and broken the brutal strength of men.

At the opening of the story Dorothy mosts on the boat to Alaska Silk Mc-bonaid, a dance hall owner and a dom-ment figure in Alaska. She repulses his attentions but in a rage he thrent-ons her safety. Silk makes good his threats even to a greater extent than Danchy and feared. Son offer the Doruthy had feared. Soon after size arrives in Shawar the gold rush is steam valves of marked in the Feel river country and fameron Stewart.
